SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 25X1X 1. [REDACTED] the following statements made to him early in June 1950 by a Monarchist active in the ARANDA group, as an illustration of the kind of information given to the Monarchists inside Spain by the Estoril Monarchists.*
2. According to a Monarchist recently arrived in Spain from Estoril, the Spanish delegation composed of Felix VEJARANO Cassina and Trifon GOMEZ San Jose, and the Basque representative, Jose Antonio de AGUIRRE y Lecube, were present during one of the recesses of the meetings held in London by the foreign ministers of the US, England and France. The Americans allegedly asked VEJARANO whether, in the event of the establishment of the Monarchy in Spain, strikes and leftist disturbances were to be expected. VEJARANO replied that the leftists were present and should answer for themselves, whereupon Trifon GOMEZ said that for a period of six years there would be no disturbance, and that until the end of such period there would be no general election. The American Minister (sic) allegedly said that in that case, Spain would have every assistance.
3. VEJARANO reportedly has told the Estoril Monarchists that FRANCO would receive no American aid, either in dollars or in commodities.

25X1A [REDACTED] Comments.

25X1A "It would appear [REDACTED] that he has some reservations as to the accuracy of Estoril Monarchist statements to their colleagues inside Spain. In view of the statements of Pedro SAINZ Rodriguez as reported in [REDACTED] the blame for inaccuracy probably lies primarily with VEJARANO, who seems to be trying to give the impression, without actually saying so, that he has conferred personally with authorities as high as the foreign ministers. See 25X1A [REDACTED] for an account of the conversation of VEJARANO and GOMEZ with Ernest DAVIES, British Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. No [REDACTED] has reported the presence of AGUIRRE during these alleged conversations. 25X1X

25X1A The longest "cooling-off" period previously mentioned was four years (see [REDACTED])
